Premier Division: With postponements up and down the country, Torpoint Athletic were the only side to host a Western League fixture on Saturday afternoon, and it went well for the hosts who secured a 3-1 win over Ashton & Backwell United. After Danny Zallick had given Torpoint a 31st minute lead, the home side then doubled their tally from the spot through Ryan Richards as the game hit the hour mark. An impressive Paul Heveran free-kick seven minutes from time put the result beyond doubt, before Ashton gained some late reward with a consolation in the closing moments at The Mill.

First Division: The weather also put paid to the majority of the midweek action, with only a single fixture beating the cold-snap on Tuesday evening as Longwell Green Sports hosted Bristol Telephones. Unfortunately for the hosts, they were handed their second defeat by Bristolian opponents in the space of four days, with goals from Pat Gibbs and Dan Sutton leading the Phones to a 2-0 victory at Shellards Road.
